REGISTRY OF THE CHINA.

Testimony of Col. Macfarlane and Capt. Seabury Being Taken.

In the matter of the petition for a writ of mandamus, to compel the Collector General to grant Hawaiian registry to the steamship China, Judge Perry this morning granted a motion of G. W. Macfarlane for taking the testimony of himself and Captain Seabury, who were about to go out of the Republic and not return in time for the trial. Nine o'clock on Monday was ordered as the time for taking the depositions of these witnesses. It was agreed, however, between Alfred S. Hartwell, attorney for the petitioner, and Henry E. Cooper, for Collector General Castle, to waive time and that the depositions might be taken now. Accordingly Judge Perry began hearing the taking of such testimony this morning. As the testimony is to be produced at the public trial on Monday, it is not available for publication at this time.

Alice M. Ayers Dead.

Last Tuesday, the 10th inst., the community of Lahaina was shocked to learn of the death from blood poisoning of her whose maiden name, until about a year ago when she married, was Alice K. Ayers. Alice was one of Hawaii's fairest daughters, born in Lahaina, it was there that most of her life was spent and from there she has passed away.

On account of her amiable disposition and modest and winning ways she was beloved by all who knew her and her death will cast a gloom throughout the entire District. She was the pride of a fond mother whose heart has been almost broken by this blow.

Palmyra Island.

Judge Wilcox says the statement that Palmyra Island was sold to H. Hackfeld & Co. is an error. The interest of the Pacific Navigation Company and A. F. Cooke was sold at auction when the company went into liquidation and was bid in by W. A. Kinney, who afterwards sold it to Fred Wandenburg. That interest represented three-quarters of the island, the other fourth being claimed by various parties.
